DETAILS ON GRADE COMPONENTS

Attendance and Participation: Students are required to attend all classes and participate actively. Students should treat their classroom obligations as they would treat any serious professional engagement. Your participation grade will be based on the instructor's assessment of how well you contribute to classroom dynamics relative to your class peers.

NB: In case of an absence, the student is responsible for the materials and assignments for that class; it is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor regarding absences and assignments that are missed. Unexcused absence from three or more scheduled class sessions will be grounds for failure in this course. If you do have to miss class due to a personal emergency, please let the instructor know as soon as possible. Such emergencies will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis.

Participation grades will be based on quality (an in-class performance that reflects intellectual depth, insightfulness, and contribution to class learning) and quantity (consistency and regularity of performance).

Accordingly, you are expected to read the related chapters before participating in the class. Be prepared to be called upon to "open" a class discussion by presenting your full analysis and thoughts on the assigned topic at the start of class, or to be asked through a "cold call" for comment during the discussion.

The grading of class participation is necessarily a subjective exercise. However, high-quality comments have one or more of the following characteristics: (1) insightfulness, (2) appropriate application of course concepts, and (3) advancement of the in-class discussion at hand.

Short Written Assignment:

Each student must submit a one-page written paper at the end of the first week, on a given question (drawn from a set of alternatives) provided by the instructor. The questions for the paper will be provided on the first day of class.

Small-Group Case Presentation:

Students will be assigned to a small group and each of these groups will make an in-class presentation of a case taken from the textbook. Details of the issues to be examined and expectations of the presentations (e.g., length, format) will be provided in class.

Examinations:

An in-class final examination will be administered at the end of the course. Details of content, exam format, etc. will be announced in class well before the examination dates.

Some specific criteria for evaluating discussion contributions are:

- Does the student demonstrate an eagerness to participate?
- Is the student a good listener? Does he/she build on others' comments?
- Is the student willing to interact with other class members?
- Are the points made relevant to the discussion? Are they linked to others' comments?
- Do comments demonstrate evidence of in-depth analysis of the case?
- Do comments add to our understanding of the situation?
- Do comments make a substantive contribution to the advancement of our analysis?
- Is there a willingness to test new ideas, or are the comments "safe?"
- Do comments show an understanding of concepts or analytical techniques properly applied to the current situation?
- Is the student presenting insightful quantitative analysis (when required)?
- Is the student demonstrating ethical considerations and insights?

Course Grading:

Upon completion of this course, you receive a final grade. A final grade is a letter grade that carries with it a numerical value, as outlined below.

Grade	Mark
A	80-100
B	70-79
C	60-69
D	50-59
E	0-49

To pass this subject, students are required to obtain Grade B or above in order to satisfy all the intended learning outcomes.

CLASSROOM ETHICS & COURSE POLICIES

Being respectful of others' opinions, values and culture

Cell phones are only permitted when the usage is related to the course. Absolutely NO TEXTING during class will be tolerated. If you have an emergency situation and you must be able to be reached, set the phone to vibrate and leave the room immediately when it goes off.

Any student with a documented disability needing academic adjustments or accommodations should notify the instructor or the program administrator before the start of the program, so such an arrangement will be made accordingly.

Any student who anticipates a schedule conflict because of religious reasons should make arrangements within two weeks of the start of class.

Academic misconduct

Please follow the guideline of the university policy. Academic dishonesty or misconduct will not be tolerated and may result in disciplinary action including a grade F for the course. Work submitted must be the original work of the student. Original work may include the words and ideas of others, but the source of these words and ideas must be indicated in a manner consistent with an academically recognized form, style, and citation manual. Resubmission of work previously presented in another course is prohibited.
